That Is the Way a New York Correspondent Describes Hogg's Condition.

HIS SPEECH TO TAMMANY

Brought Upon Him the Congratula tions of Bryan's Friends.

WISE HEADS AT WASHINGTON

Still Look With Some Suspicion, But the Friends of Bryan Are Mightily Pleased With the Demonstration In His Favor.

Special to the News-Democrat.

New York, July 6 .- Ex-Governor James S. Hogg, of Texas, who turned Tammany Hall's Fourth of July powwow into a demonstration for Bryan, was found in the Waldorf-Astoria sur rounded by a group of Democratic friends. He was in a state of exquisite elation over the turn affairs have taken Special to the News-Democrat. in Tammany circles since the event of yesterday. His friends were eager to war whoop for Bryan. When questioned about his speech at the Tammany meeting Mr. Hogg said:

'I'm for Bryan at home and in New York. The locality in which I speak or the character of the audience would not make me refrain from standing up for Bryan, for whom I have always been. Bryan is a great and good man.

Bryan is the next president."
"But," said the reporter, "the program arranged by Tammany leaders was said to include the launching of a

I don't think so," quickly replied Governor Hogg. "They couldn't ex-Governor Hogg. "They couldn't do that seriously. They know how Bryan stands with the people and they know the futility of getting up a boom for Van Wyck or anybody else. Why, the boys in Tammany Hall are for Bryan.

BRYAN PEOPLE PLEASED.

people are much elated over the manner in which Tammany received the Bryan free silver Fourth of July eloquence of ex-Governor Hogg. Some of Special to the News-Democrat. the old heads, however, caution them from attaching too much importance to Tammany cheers. Bryan has a following in New York, and in some quarters the hope is entertained that, under the influence of this faction, and in deference to the prevailing sentiment of the party as a national organization, Tammany may be induced to accept Bryan and the Chicago platform; but the general attitude of the Bryan people toward the New York Democracy is that of suspicion and caution.

DEVASTATION

By Texas Flood is Greater Than Appeared in the First Reports.

Special to the News-Democrat. Dallas, Texas, July 6 .- The devastation caused by the flood in Waller, Washington, Fort Bend and other counties along the lower part of the Brazos river and Colorado river is much greater than indicated by the early reports. The destitution of the people is distressing. The larger Texas cities are responding generously to the call for assistance. It is feared that hundreds of negroes in the remote Brazos district have been swept away by the flood and many of them drowned. An unconfirmed rumor that 125 negroes nave been drowned in Waller county has reached here. A telephone message, from Calbert, states that the situation is much improved in that section. There has been great damage to property and heavy loss of life in the immediate vicinity but the town itself stood the flood remarkably well.

BAD BRIDGE AT FULTON

Was Condemned Years Ago But Has Not Been Replaced.

SAID THERE IS NO MONEY

And That Is the Reason the Commissioners Do Not Put in a New Bridge - Yockey Goes Back to the Office of the Signal.

Special to the News-Democrat.

Canal Fulton, July 6 .- Despite the fact that the advance agent of prosperity arrived three years ago, the Stark lives of our citizens the assertion that yet. they have no funds. Of course, it is obvious that all of us cannot "walk around" the river, neither can we all swim, so we are compelled to daily shock our nervous organism by treading on a bridge that is apt to float down the river at almost any moment. But 'we know our business" as Marcus declared, and perhaps it would only be political move on the part of the present incumbents in office to provide us with the proper means of crossing the river. We would respectfully call the commissioners' attention to a decision of the circuit court of Hardin county on the liability of commissioners and their bondsmen for injuries received through defective bridges.

Mr. J. P. Yockey this week once again assumes the responsibility of guiding the destinies of this community by editing the Signal while C. W Schafer has contracted to alleviate the sufferings of his fellow men by dispen-sing drugs at Bewards stand. Whether this move has any political significance or not we are unable to state, but we are inclined to think that Mark Hanna is at the bottom of the deal, as Mr Yockey is strongly of the opinion that the disciples of Marcus decrease when he is not at the helm of the Signal so

He seemed to enjoy the day as much as any of the younger people who were present. As an instance of his activity he was much annoyed because those composing the party desired to wait till an opportunity offered for a seat in the car, coming home, as all cars were well crowded. He said there was no need of waiting and wanted to jump onto a trailer while it was in motion and take his chance with the others of the party in getting a seat or hanging onto the platform. He was born in Vermont in 1796 and came to Ohio when he was 19 years of age. Massillon, July 5.-The Fourth was celebrated in Massillon in the usual way, but not without a number of unfortunate accidents, which resulted from premature discharge of fireworks. The most seriously injured was Christian Geis, a resident of Cherry street. While Geis was attempting to light a cannon cracker it exploded, shattering his hand so badly that amputation was necessary. Geis is 82 years of age and may not survive the shock. Blaine Bechtel, aged 15 years, may lose an eye as the result of the bursting of a small cracker close to his face. Hen. y Miller, motorman on the inter-urban line was painfully burned about the face, and there were numerous other accidents with results less serious.

Joseph Weick, who was injured last week by an overturning hay wagon had his left foot amputated this morning. The pole of the wagon crushed Weik's ankle.

RIDER THROWN.

Bad Accident at Magnolia During the Celebration of the Nation's Birthday.

George Carnes, the fifteen year old son of Attorney and Mrs. Allen Carnes, was terribly injured at Magnolia Tuesday. There was a big Fourth of July celebration in progress, and among other events was a running race in which six of the best horses in the neighborhood were entered. The course lay along the main road near the town and young Carnes was one of the riders. The horses came down the stretch with Carnes and his steed well up in front. A few rods ahead of the wire a vehicle stood in the roadway. Carnes pulled his horse to escape the buggy and just missed it when the saddle girth broke and the rider was hurled from his seat. He fell in front of the horse and the animal's feet struck him squarely in the face. By standers ran to the boy's assistance and Dr. McIlravey was soon at his side His injuries are so severe that he will be confined to his bed for some time.
